

Lightning women champions, daylight second 2010

CENTRAL Coast Lightning dominated their Sydney-based rivals to take out two Football NSW women's premierships on Saturday at Blacktown.

They sealed the match with a final goal with about 10 minutes to go.

2010 Brown dangerman for Berkeley Vale

The Gosford women's Premier League side celebrates its win over Wyoming on Saturday.

The Entrance's Ben Davis scores over the top of Berkeley Vale's Brian Beveridge.

Brown's golden strike

DAMEN Brown capped off a fairytale season by setting up a goal and scoring an extra-time winner as The Entrance beat Berkeley Vale in a pulsating Premier League grand final on Saturday.

way through the first half. "I loved that, it was a heap of fun," a delighted Brown said minutes after full-time.

Abbott scores goal with $3m upgrade promise

OPPOSITION leader Tony Abbott was briefly "king of the kids" when he made a flying visit to the Central Coast on Sunday.

Lightning twins blitz premiers in grand final

IDENTICAL twins Connor and Lachlan Wilkinson were the goalscorers in Central Coast Lightning's under-13 Super Youth League grand final win on Saturday.

Lachlan took a well-placed shot to secure victory. "We had to lift our game and we did. The goal came at a good time and in the second half we had a few chances to kill them off and couldn't score."

French champagne finish was a long time brewing

DAVE Brewer was the poster boy for the post-match talk, but it was his speech, Andrew French, that charmed their third Premier League title in six years.

Dragons start season with cup win

PREMIER League champions Gosford City kicked off the season with another title when they won the Central Coast Cup women's title on Sunday.

"They were beating us to the ball and seemed a bit hungrier. We had to lift our game and we did. The goal came at a good time and in the second half we had a few chances to kill them off and couldn't score."

Wake-up call for Dragons

EMMA HERD 2011 GOSFORD City received a reality check heading into the Champion of Champions tournament, after a hard-fought women's Premier League grand final win over Doyalson.

End of an era

STEVEN MAHER 2011 IT WASN'T until an emotional night for the players and coach PHIL Payne when Central Coast FC players in final upgrade kit played their last game on the field.

Perfect job gives Tigers the title

Umina upset Gosford in Premier League 2012 Grand Final

THE conclusion to the Women's Premier League (WPL) competition had its fair share of drama and

Gosford looked the more dangerous side as Umina backed off their intensity 30 minutes into the game and missed an opportunity to take the lead when a penalty

Fabulous five claim top honour

STEVEN MAHER 2013 FIVE of the region's best over players were honoured when Central Coast Football Association inducted its best players into its hall of fame on Saturday.

Tigers pounce in thriller

STEVEN MAHER 2013 IN THE 90th minute and with the game tied at 1-1, the Tigers had a huge game on their hands to avoid the Central Coast Football Association's under-13 Super Youth League grand final.

Swinfield gives Killarney winning edge

STEVEN MAHER 2013 A GOAL from Mia Swinfield in extra-time was the difference as Killarney Districts secured the double in the women's Premier League.

Soaring Eagles in goal blitz

THE ENTRANCE WIN AN EPIC 2014

All smiles as Eagles rock night away

STEVEN MAHER 2015 THE Entrance parted long and hard after Gosford's successive Premier League Grand Final on Saturday night.

Hall stunner seals victory

2016 Premier Leagues - (above mens) Killarney 1 def Gosford 0 (below womens) The Entrance 1 def Gosford 0

SEA EAGLES DEFEAT WOMEN'S PREMIERSHIP TITLE