

DOMINANT

2000 Grand win to Ocean Beach

2001 United Smith's six of the best 2001 wins a thriller

By DAMON CRONSHAW

United's 11 goalkeeper Grant Smith pulled off an brilliant save to help his side in an 87-point shoot-out victory over Budgetwolves in the Premier League soccer grand final on Sunday.

2003 Copeland's double strike

Soccer

TWO brilliantly taken goals by Amelia Copeland early in the second half spearheaded Ourimbah University to a 3-2 win over Southern Ettalong United in the women's Premier League One grand final at Central Coast Express Adv...

scored a consolation goal just before full-time. In the Premier League Two decider Berkeley Vale thrashed Gosford 7-3. Gosford opened the scoring with a goal by Tim Cohen before Berkeley Vale netted in the ninth, 29th, 33rd, 35th and 37th minutes to lead 5-1 at half-time.

2004 New boys strike gold

Berkeley Vale win cup in extra time

By GREG DANVERS

IT took 105 minutes and a golden goal for recently promoted Berkeley Vale to complete the fairy tale and win the Central Coast soccer men's cup on the weekend.

AN early goal by Wyoming striker Shemar Bell put his side in the box seat, but in the end it wasn't enough. Ourimbah's Katie Bayliss 12 minutes later. Ourimbah surged ahead 1-1 one minute after the break

2004

Marshall's dream return

soccer 2004

STEVEN MAHER

WYOMING midfielder Ryan Marshall completed a fairytale return to his junior club in an epic Premier League One grand final on Sunday night.

Wyoming coach John McLaugherty celebrates with Neil McAndrew.

Fired the minor premiers in front late in the half with a well struck

TIGERS ROAR

2004 Wyoming on target in penalty shoot-out

By GREG DANVERS

WYOMING Tigers beat East Coast Stars in the women's Premier League soccer grand final on Sunday night.

2005 Brown is first Mariner

2005 The Entrance ends Umina's brave bid

soccer 2005

STEVEN MAHER

UMINA's gassy Premier League One title charge ended in grand final disappointment at Gosford

2005 Defender injured as Woy Woy breaks drought

Woy Woy defender Tracy Hillcock had his last Premier League appearance in a kicking clash with Ourimbah, opponent Berkeley Vale, in the women's Premier League grand final.

Umina comes back from the dead

soccer 2006

STEVEN MAHER

UMINA looked dead for its second grand final defeat in succession. But Jason Stafford found the back of the net with six minutes to play to take the game into penalty.

Wyoming missed twice from the spot with Umina's Grant Britton having the honour of kicking the winning penalty. "I thought we had blown it," admitted Umina skipper Andrew French said. "We had so many really good chances to kill the game off and didn't take them. Then they come

Vanzwan hero as Kincumber wins thriller

MAYHELLIE Van Zwanen won them and provided a grand final hero with a match-winning goal to give Kincumber its first Premier League women's title on Sunday.

Unbeaten Wyoming claims title

soccer 2007

PAUL NEWMAN

WYOMING won their second Premier League title in six years when they defeated Berkeley Vale 2-1 in the women's Premier League grand final victory on Sunday.

'Cruising' Ourimbah beats Terrigal in thriller

soccer

EMMA COOTE

THE final slice of the women's Premier League treble almost got

Umina executes plan to dominate decider

soccer 2008

STEVEN MAHER

UMINA won the Premier League for the second time in three years after a dominant display in Sunday's grand final.

2008 Ruthless Ourimbah still on their perch

OURIMBAH coach Cait Walker was reduced to tears after her team scored seven unanswered goals in Sunday's women's Premier League grand final win over Budgetwolves.

"I cried when the sixth and you have to really knock us off, to knock off our perch. They gave us a slight tug but they didn't knock us off. So we went out there to prove a point and our point was that nobody has our measure."

Burrell stars as Tigers triumph

soccer

STEVEN MAHER

MORE than 10 months of hard work was rewarded in the best way on Sunday when Wyoming won its third Premier League title in six years.

2009 Hoban hat-trick for winners

Wyoming's Curisa Hoban and Budgetwolves' Laura Hodgson in action during the women's grand final on Sunday. Picture: WADE MAGUIRE